Utah Lt. Governor's Office to Host Public
Demonstration of New Voting Equipment Under Consideration for Purchase

What: Five Voting Equipment manufacturers responded to a recent Request for Proposal issued by the Lt. Governor's Office for a statewide cooperative contract to purchase new voting equipment for use by Utahns in upcoming elections. This equipment is under consideration for purchase as part of a coordinated effort to replace aging voting equipment statewide. As part of the evaluation process, the public is invited to test the equipment and provide feedback to the Lt. Governor's Office. Each manufacturer will showcase their equipment, and will be available to answer questions regarding their systems. Lt. Governor Spencer J. Cox invites all interested citizens to attend.

When: Open for public input Wed., August 2, 2017 from 12:00 p.m. - 7:00 p.m.

Contact Mark Thomas, Dir. of Elections for media interviews or questions 8:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.
